2022 Willow's Cuvee, GSM, Willow Creek District, $85

Turtle Rock is a family-owned boutique winery built on a simple philosophy: you can't make great wine without great fruit. Established in 2008 by Don and Claudia Burns, Turtle Rock sources fruit from some of the finest vineyards in the Willow Creek and Templeton Gap Districts of Paso Robles. They have numerous scores in the high 90's from Jeb Dunnuck, The Wine Advocate, Wine Spectator, and Vinous. In 2021 they were awarded the coveted 100 points for their 2019 G2 Syrah. The Turtle Rock tasting room is in Tin City, Paso Robles and they are always excited to share their passion!

Jeff Lindsay-Thorsen

2021 W.T. Vintners, Boushey Vineyard, Grenache, Yakima Valley, $49

2015 W.T. Vintners, Boushey Vineyard, Grenache, Yakima Valley $49

W.T. Vintners strives to create wines that tell the story of a singular place. Our philosophy is inspired by old-world traditions, focused on single vineyard sources and low-intervention winemaking techniques. We believe this approach best presents Washington's unique terroir and produces wines of purity, nuance, and distinction.

PREMIER SPONSOR

WALLA WALLA LAND COMPANY

Four Heritage Vineyards, Guided by Stewardship of the Land.

WWLC is a sustainable farming business that is committed to the highest viticulture standards for fine wine grape growing across our ranches in The Rocks District and greater Walla Walla Valley. In order to harness the sense of place that is possible within these distinctive wine appellations, we are dedicated to minimizing inputs and to farming in a way that promotes true terroir. Our decisions are guided by a belief in our stewardship of the land, as well as a strong commitment to the care of those who cultivate the vines. We endeavor to partner with vintners who share our vision of quality, integrity, and dedication to making remarkable wines that belong on the world stage and can stand the test of time.

Our current properties reflect our dedication to heritage sites within the Rocks District and Walla Walla Valley. Wines made from our ranches have consistently received high critical acclaim and we seek to continue to innovate our farming and business practices to ensure our partners have access to the best fruit possible.

Farming is at the core of what we do. We do so with a persistent dedication to the land, water and people that make growing world class grapes possible in this place.
